Civil Action No. _____

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446, defendant Bruce L. Hammonds with the consent of all defendants hereby gives notice of the removal of this action to this Court from the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland, where it is pending as Case No. 24-C-05-006704. Because federal courts have original jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and the other prerequisites for removal are met, this action is removable pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441. The specific grounds for removal are as follows.

Procedural Matters

1. Plaintiff filed this action in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland, on July 11, 2005. Defendant Bruce L. Hammonds, a Director and the President and Chief Executive Officer of nominal defendant MBNA Corporation (“MBNA”), did not receive a copy of the complaint, through service or otherwise, until July 20, 2005 at the earliest. (Copies of the summons and complaint are attached hereto as Exhibits A and B.) No other process, pleadings or orders have been served upon Mr. Hammonds. As prescribed by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b), Mr. Hammonds has filed this Notice of Removal within 30 days of his receipt of the complaint.

2. The Circuit Court for Baltimore City is located within the geographical boundaries of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, Northern Division. 28 U.S.C. § 100(1). Mr. Hammonds will promptly file a copy of this Notice with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d).

3. No admission of fact or liability is intended by this Notice of Removal, and all defenses, affirmative defenses and motions are hereby reserved. Mr. Hammonds also files this Notice of Removal subject to, and without waiving, any objections to personal jurisdiction he may have. See, e.g., Morris & Co. v. Skandinavia Ins. Co., 279 U.S. 405, 409 (1929).

Federal Question Jurisdiction

4. This action arises under federal law within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and is therefore removable to this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1441. In Grable & Sons Metal Products, Inc. v. Darue Engineering & Manufacturing, 125 S. Ct. 2363, 2367 (2005), the Supreme Court held that federal “arising under” jurisdiction exists over state-law claims if those claims raise a contested and substantial federal question and “federal jurisdiction is consistent with congressional judgment about the sound division of labor between state and federal courts governing the application of § 1331.”

5. Plaintiff’s state-law claims necessarily raise disputed and substantial federal issues. All three of plaintiff’s claims are premised on the allegation that MBNA and certain of its officers made materially false and misleading public statements in violation of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. § 78j(b), and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, 17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5. See Complaint ¶¶ 20-36. In support of this alleged violation of federal securities law, plaintiff relies on, among other things, Regulation S-X (17 C.F.R. § 210.4-01(2)(1)), which “states that financial statements filed with the SEC which are not prepared in compliance with GAAP are presumed to be misleading and inaccurate.” Complaint ¶ 23. Because each of plaintiff’s state-law claims is premised on an alleged violation of federal law, the outcome of this case necessarily will depend on the resolution of disputed and substantial federal issues. Those issues include, among others, whether the statements alleged to be false and misleading fall within the safe-harbor provision for “forward-looking” statements established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4, et seq.

6. There is also no question that “a federal forum may entertain these issues without disturbing any congressionally approved balance of federal and state judicial responsibilities.” Grable & Sons Metal Prods., 125 S. Ct. at 2368. To the contrary, Congress has vested the federal courts with exclusive jurisdiction over claims arising under the Securities Exchange Act. 15 U.S.C. § 78aa.

7. Plaintiff acknowledges in his complaint that “class action suits have been commenced in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware” asserting violations of the Securities Exchange Act based on the same allegations at issue in this action. Complaint ¶ 31. In fact, two closely-related derivative actions, seven closely-related securities class actions and one closely-related ERISA action are currently pending in the District of Delaware. With the removal of this action to federal court, this case now can be transferred to the District of Delaware pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a) where it can be consolidated with the other two derivative actions pending in that District and can proceed in a coordinated fashion with the other closely-related cases.

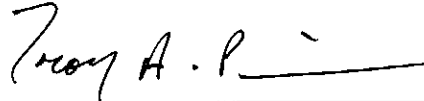

8. All of the other defendants in this action have authorized the undersigned counsel to represent that they consent to removal and that they will file signed written consents.

Conclusion

This Court has original jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331. All procedural prerequisites to removal have been met. Accordingly, removal to this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1441 is proper and effected hereby.
